Letter From the Principal

The first couple of weeks of school have come and gone and it has been great being back in school. There is a buzz about this place. Students, teachers, and parents are excited and God is blessing. It is amazing how time flies when you are actively working and staying busy.

It is a blessing to serve Jesus Christ in this ministry. Elmwood is an amazing school, and I am very proud of everyone that is a part of it. God has truly blessed our school with a great staff and great families.

The summer season is coming to a end and Autumn is fast approaching. My children are already bundling up in a jacket as we leave the house and come to school, only to shed the jacket within an hour.

I want to thank each of you for allowing Elmwood Baptist Academy to partner with you and help you to train up your children for Jesus Christ. Each family in our Academy is important. From the 2s-3s class all the way through high school, we love you and pray for you. The education of your children is very important and often times to be done correctly requires sacrifice.

As I have mentioned in the previous newsletters, the 2014-2015 theme for the Academy is "For Such A Time As This!" The story of Esther shows us how God moves in the lives and hearts of people around us. Often times God is preparing us for a future event that may take years to arrive. Such is the case with Esther.

I asks the students often, "How will you allow God to prepare you today for something He has planned for you?" Or, "Are you humbly seeking God's presence in your life so that you are ready for the future?"

I pray that you are talking to your children and encouraging them in a similar way. As parents and teachers, we must train our children to understand that God has a purpose and plan for them. It may not be today, or tomorrow, but one day God's plan will be fulfilled in their lives. I encourage you to pray for our children. Ask God for protection. Guard your children; guard their hearts; guard their minds; for one day soon God will call them into His service.

God bless you all!

In Christ's Service!

4 Keys to Elevating Your Prayer Life

“Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.”—James 5:16–17 man, but he was still just a man.

On at least three different occasions, Elijah called fire from Heaven. He is most noted for the fire prayed down when he was in a contest with the pagan prophets of Baal. Fire fell from Heaven and consumed the sacrifice, the stones which made up the sacrifice, the wood that was used to provide fuel for the sacrifice, the water that had saturated the sacrifice, and even the dust that was on and around the sacrifice.

We are reminded that his prayer life could not only call fire from Heaven but could control the weather as well. And he was a man—just like us! What does that mean? I think it means that you and I have the same access to the same God that answered his prayer.

There are four things that could elevate our prayer lives to the level of an Elijah:

1. PRAY FOR AN ANSWER

- The Bible uses the word effectual.
- Effectual means “to produce a desired result or effect.”
- Philippians 4:6 says: “Let your requests be made known to God....”
- It didn’t say how small or how big the request had to be.
- If you need a pencil, pray for a pencil. If you need a million dollars, pray for a million dollars.

- We need to get specific with God.

2. PRAY WITH ASSERTION

- This is a fervent prayer.
- This indicates that effective praying should be with intensity.
- It may require extra time, maybe with tears.
- Jesus prayed fervently in the Garden of Gethsemane.

3. PRAY WITH AUTHORITY

- The Bible speaks here of a righteous man.
- What could help our prayer more than a holy

Does It Pay to Do Right Anymore?

In a world of Skype, YouTube, Twitter, and Facebook, everyone can know what you’re doing when you do it. Your life can go viral. Depending on what and when you post, you can become famous, garnering an army of fans and being asked to appear on talk shows or speak, sing, or play at events. You could be the next American icon.

With such exposure, it does pay to do the right thing. If you are discovered. If someone finds out about your heroic—or just nice—deed and blogs about it, tweets it, or in some way documents it for the masses, you could be paid well for “going above and beyond the call of duty.” And I am in no way denigrating those who have been recognized for their good deeds. Many times, they have been highly deserving of recognition.

If the Bible is being thrown out, it is no wonder that the idea of doing right because it is right is too.

But let me add to the question: “Does it pay to do the right thing when no one else will ever know about it?” Does it pay to return extra change when the cashier gives you too much? If anything, you lose money. Does it pay to tell the truth when there may be dire consequences to doing so—losing your job, for instance?

If we were honest with ourselves, most of us would probably agree that we are more likely to do the right thing only if there is something in it for us. I mean, doesn’t life teach us that it is crazy to do otherwise? Scandal after scandal, fraud after fraud, it has actually paid not to do the right thing. That is, until the person gets caught.

Why do so many think this way? Why do Americans tend to look after themselves and do what would benefit the individual? As much as we don’t like to admit it, “good, old-fashioned values” are becoming just that. Old-fashioned.

- life that is pleasing to God?
- Living for God certainly has its benefits.
- Holiness, purity, and consistent living could open up Heaven's doors to us.

4. PRAY WITH ANTICIPATION

- The Bible says that this kind of prayer availeth much.

- Why are we surprised when God answers our prayers?
- Connect the dots: Effective, fervent, righteous, faith-believing prayers get Heaven's attention.
- Elijah was a man just like us. We, too, can get things from God!

Does it Pay to Do Right Anymore?

Why?

Well, we've thrown out the rule book. In demoting the Bible to the status of "good literature," in taking the Ten Commandments out of public places, and in relegating the names of God and Jesus Christ to words sworn in frustration, we are creating a generation of new rules. Everything is tolerated—everything, of course, except Christian principles.

The idea of doing right with no promise of immediate or public reward originated with the Bible. Take Joseph, for example: he did right and was punished for it. At least for a while. If the Bible is being thrown out, it is no wonder that the idea of doing right because it is right is too.

So what is the answer?

There is no easy fix for a collective mindset that has devolved over several generations—and that has spiked in its devolution over the last few decades. We must first realize that we are broken before we can begin to fix ourselves. Will the change happen with the millennial generation? As the Bible says, "With God all things are possible" (Matthew 19:26; Mark 10:27). With God, a rich man can be saved from eternal damnation, and a nation can be revived to thirst after the God it once spurned.

With God, we can revive this barren land. But change begins only when we decide to do the right thing, even when no one else will know—even if no one cares and there is no earthly reward.

Honor Roll Field Trip Boondocks, Westminster, CO

October 30, 2014

4. Parents are welcome to come. Cost is the same as the students.

Don't miss a night of dynamic preaching and God moving powerfully.

Dress Code

Each student's appearance should be such that Christ would be pleased and honored. It is vital that each student wholeheartedly support the dress standards. No immodest dress is allowed. Clothing is immodest if, by its style, cut, coloration, or fit, hinders others from looking at your face. Some fads violate God's warning to keep male and female dress distinctly different. (Deut. 22:5) School dress code items are to be worn all week for academic work, for official school functions, on or off-campus. PLEASE, No outdated, dirty, wrinkled, or ragged clothing. The Bible only lays out three general principles for our dress. (1) Modesty is essential. (2) Offending others is a sin. (3) We need to dress in a way that honors and glorifies God and avoids the appearance of something evil.

These principles work wonderfully; however, problems arise when opinions differ as to what is modest, offends, or is honoring to God. Therefore, the following guidelines have been researched and determined as good, safe regulations on how our students should dress.

The following guidelines will be enforced...

We want to let you know of a great opportunity for you to help Elmwood Baptist Academy. Kroger/King Soopers has partnered with EBA in a great money raising opportunity at no cost to you.

Simply purchase a pre-loaded $50.00 gift card from Elmwood for $50.00 and shop as you normally would. Keep this card and continue using it every time you shop for groceries or fuel. Every time you load additional money on the card, Elmwood received 5%.

For example, the day you purchase your card Elmwood received $2.50 (5% of $50.00). When you go to store and buy $XXX.00 in groceries, ask the clerk to add what amount you desire to the card before they start to ring up your order. Then, simply pay with the gift card.
